

Cookie Declaration

General

When browsing websites, the so-called "cookies" files are used, hereinafter referred to as "cookies", i.e. small files that are stored by a website on your terminal device (computer). Their use is aimed at the correct functioning of the websites.

These files allow you to identify the software you are using and to customise the website to your needs.

Basically, "cookies" contain the name of the domain from which they originate, their storage time on the device and the assigned value.

References/Links

All links or logos leading to other websites are simple HTML links. This means that the connection to the server of the controller to which the link leads is only established after clicking on the link.

Security

The "cookies" we use are safe for your devices. In particular, it is not possible for viruses or other unwanted or harmful software to enter your devices via "cookies".

Types of cookies

We use two types of cookies:

- Session cookies, which are stored on your device and remain there only until the end of the browser session. All stored data is then permanently deleted from your device's memory. The mechanism does not allow persistent cookies to collect personal information or confidential information from your device.
- Persistent cookies are stored on your device and remain there until they are deleted. When the session of a particular browser ends or the device is switched off, they are not deleted from your device. The mechanism of persistent cookies does not allow to download personal data or confidential information from your device.

Plug-in from WiWi.pl

We use the WiWi. pl plug-in on our website to inform you about the technologies used on our website and to give you the opportunity to consent to the activation of some of these technologies where this is legally required. We use this plug-in to fulfil our legal obligations pursuant to Art. 6 I lit. c. GDPR in accordance with Art. 7 IGDPR. This allows you to give your consent to the processing of personal data in accordance with the provisions of the GDPR, which we then document.

The controller of Wiwi.pl is POZYCJONUSZ Patryk Chlabicz, ul. gen. Władysława Andersa, nr 26, 15-124, Białystok, Poland, acting on our behalf.

Making a declaration within the framework of the plug-in involves the processing of personal data such as:

Animated IP address, date, time, browser, content of the statement.

Storage time: 1 month, unless consent is given for longer storage

What tools do we use and why?
Google	Data displayed through tools provided by Google Ireland Ltd, Gordon House, Barrow Street, Dublin 4, Ireland via the Google functionalities may be transmitted by Google Ireland to Google LLC Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, CA 94043, USA servers in the USA. As there is no EU adequacy decision applicable to the US, this data is transferred on the basis of standard contractual clauses. This continues to be done within the framework of the GDPR.
